HUMANE SOCIETY APPOINTS HUDSON TO BOARD

Vancouver, Wash. (January 27, 2014) The Humane Society for Southwest Washington (HSSW) recently appointed Jason Hudson to its Board of Directors.

Hudson serves as Division Vice President for the Southwest Washington division of Waste Connections, Inc. Hudson is the third executive-level leader to come from Waste Connections, Inc., a demonstration of the organization's on-going commitment to supporting HSSW through volunteerism.

"Jason's strong background in leadership development, forecasting and budgeting will be a tremendous addition to round out our board," said Stacey Graham, HSSW Executive Director.

A Vancouver resident with his wife and three daughters since 2009, Hudson also has two Shih tsu rescues.

HSSW is open 12:00 - 6:00 p.m. on Tuesdays - Sundays, and is located at 1100 NE 192nd Ave, just north of Mill Plain in Vancouver.

###

The Humane Society for Southwest Washington is the only open admission animal sheltering facility in Southwest Washington – sheltering more than 10,000 homeless and abused animals every year. More than 600 volunteers donate 26,000-plus hours annually. Since 1897, the Humane Society for Southwest Washington has enriched the lives of people, pets and our community through adoption and outreach, and serves as a resource for companion animal services and education.
